

ACTION PLAN TO ASSIST SELF-REPRESENTED LITIGANTS

This Action Plan is the product of the Yuba County Superior Court and the Yuba County Self-Represented Litigant Project Committee (See Attachment I for list of members). The Court wished to acknowledge the contribution of all who helped in the development of this Action Plan and looks forward to continuing its collaboration with these participants and the community at large in fully achieving the desired results: a more informed body of court users who have ready access to information about, and services provided by the state's legal system.

Historical Background and Demographics

Yuba County is one of the original 27 counties into which California was partitioned in 1850. Total land area is 630.7 square miles. The county is bounded on the west by the Feather River, across which lies Sutter County; on the north by Butte County and the southern tip of Plumas County; on the east by Sierra and Nevada counties, with the Yuba River as part of that boundary and on the south by the Bear River, across which lie Placer and Sutter counties.

The county derives its name from the river that bisects it, which was discovered by Jedediah Smith in 1828 and named by John A. Sutter (c.1842).

The first white settlement was made when Sutter expanded his territories into the area in 1841 and leased part of the lands to Theodore Cordua, a Prussian emigrant, who called his settlement New Mechenburg (1842). Its center was at the site of Marysville, to which he added a seven-league grant of his own in 1844. Marysville, which has always been the county seat, was named for a settler who was a member of the Donner party.

Its site at the confluence of the Feather and Yuba rivers provided ideal geography for a supply port and trade center for the many mining towns that sprang up along the rivers and creeks of the foothills and up north into the mountains of the Sierra Nevada during the gold rush.

Hydraulic mining in the late 1850's and the following decades washed away many of these mushroom communities and so clogged the Yuba River with debris that levees had to be built to protect neighboring land. That form of mining was succeeded by dredging, which proved profitable for another hundred years.

The county's economy later came to be based on agriculture, and the bad working conditions of migratory hop pickers led to the tragic Wheatland Riots of 1913. In more recent times the main crops have been rice, citrus, peaches and nuts. Lumbering, livestock and poultry are also important components of the county's economy. The county has major reservoirs for hydroelectric uses, flood control, and irrigation and has Beale Air Force Base located close to Marysville.

In 1983 the county had a population of 51,400; with an area of 409,408 acres, it had 80 persons per square mile. As of the 2000 census, the population of the county stood at 60,219. Projections to the year 2020 put the population at 81,900. This represents a potential 27.5% increase.

1. Description of Need:

Yuba County is an extremely poor, agrarian rural area. As such, many of its inhabitants are unable to hire private attorneys to handle their various legal needs and as a result must access information and services from the legal system through self-representation. The Court is able to identify the following information about the types of cases involving self-represented litigants using the courts in Yuba County. During the period for which data is available, November 01, 2001 thru May 31, 2002, cases filed with one or both parties representing themselves constituted 74.8% of all cases presented to the court as illustrated in table 1 below.

Table 1

Representation Type	Number Filed	Percentage %
Pro-per One or both parties	255	74.8%
Attorney Represented	86	25.2%
Total Cases Filed	341	100%

Family Law cases account for a large portion of the court's resources as shown in Table 2 below.

Table 2

Case Type	# Cases	Percentage

Mediation – Successful	179	73%
Mediation - Unsuccessful	66	27%
